

Get Your Child an ACADEMIC CHECKUP!

How did my child really do last year?

Is what millions of parents are asking right now. We know that grading during the pandemic was a challenge and that there's uncertainty about what the true effects were from the school disruption and the switch to learning at home.

Get a clear picture of your child's academic health with a Sylvan Insight™ Assessment. It's like an academic wellness check!

Sylvan Insight includes:

- A computer-adaptive skills assessment, pinpointing your child's exact strengths and needs
- Observations identifying your child's abilities in oral reading, writing and math
- A self-evaluation your child completes, rating his or her own habits and attitudes towards school and learning
