

QUICK GUIDE TO TUTORING OPTIONS

After a year of COVID and a few weeks of school, many parents consider tutoring to provide additional challenge or support. With so many options, how do you choose? Here's a quick snapshot of choices and services for tutoring.

Volunteer or Peers

HOW IT WORKS

Primarily works on homework and prescribed assignments.

Quality Assurance

Likely recommended by someone you know.

Trained Instructors?

Not always

Availability

Limited

Virtual or In-Person

BOTH

Services

1-1 tutoring and homework help

FREE

Online Marketplace

HOW IT WORKS

Choose tutor based on profile. Many choices. 24/7 access

Quality Assurance

Profile reviews based on past users.

Trained Instructors?

Not always

Availability

global access, but may have a different tutor each time

Virtual or In-Person

Virtual Only

Services

1-1 tutoring, small group classes, homework help

$15 - $140

Franchise Options

HOW IT WORKS

Has its own proprietary curriculum or methodology.

Quality Assurance

Students demonstrate improvement based on prescribed formulas.

Guaranteed Training?

Yes

Availability

Flexible hours, but tutors not always consistent

Virtual or In-Person

BOTH

Services

3-5 student ratio for tutoring and homework help

$35 - $100

eureka!

HOW IT WORKS

Personalized plans, detailed progress reports, senior level oversight Builds 21st century skills.

Quality Assurance

Guarantee student confidence and improvement or money back.

Guaranteed Training?

Yes

Availability

Team-based approach with senior oversight, provides flexibility within tutors and consistency with student progress.

Virtual or In-Person

BOTH

Services

1-1 tutoring, small classes, homework help lounge

$20 - $99

Super-Tutors

HOW IT WORKS

Experienced, high-level tutors, usually for test-prep

Quality Assurance

Likely recommended by someone you know. Solid reputation

Guaranteed Training?

Yes

Availability

Limited, waiting list

Virtual or In-Person

BOTH

Services

1-1 tutoring and homework help

$65 - $250

